

Department of Navy's 2007 Workplace Alternative Dispute Resolution Conference

19-20 June 2007

Jacksonville, Florida

Jacksonville, FL

Why should I attend?

- Learn about ADR laws, policies & methods in the federal context.
- Obtain insight into how to build a successful local ADR system.
 - Stay current as a mediator or facilitator.

Who should attend?

- People who deal with workplace disputes: HR, ER, LR, EEO, attorneys, etc.
 - Activity Dispute Resolution Specialists
 - DON employees who serve as mediators or facilitators

Comments from 2006:

- "This was a great conference. I learned a lot, and can't wait to be part of the ADR process."
 - "The number of sessions and length of the conference were just right. I had a wonderful time. Thank you!"
 - "All workshops were excellent. Gave me a broader view of ADR."

SAVE THE DATES!

The registration website will open in March 2007.

NO CONFERENCE FEE

Please visit www.adr.navy.mil for information updates.
Sponsored by the DON Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Program

Office, Hosted by:

Commander Navy Region Southeast and Human Resource Service Center Southeast